

Our family has been listening to Klove for 3 years now and it is the only thing our home will turn on. It is a safe station for us to listen too and it is very uplifting to our community. Please do not compromise the station and take the blessing away from the community.